

weekend

Kitchen magician

Once again proving that nothing in this town is what you think it is, Café Renee's ghost cooking service comes to your home, cooks a meal for your party, teaches you about the meal and its ingredients and then leaves so you can take the credit. Alternately, says chef Devin Alexander, she can stay at the event and "pretend to be a friend." The menu can consist of just about anything. She was even once asked to ghost-cater a chili and cornbread party.

Cost: $100 for instruction; $400 and up for catering

Contact: (310) 466-5430;
www.devinalexander.com

It's all at your door

Need a spa treatment, fashion advice, groceries or just some milk and cookies but don't want to venture outside the house? They'll bring it to you. Page 28

ART
Getty museum's acting director moves on. Page 4

POP MUSIC Go west, young metal heads. Page 8